

SEEDS HINDI PUBLICATIONS

Please place your order through email - seeds@xlri.ac.in

Igniting action Enabling change

Illustrated Booklets for Adolescents

Rs 35/- each

1. Ab Mai Badi Ho Rahi Hoon
(information for girls about puberty, in a story form)
2. Kishorawastha ki Kahani
(information for boys about puberty, in a story form)
3. Phulo Kyu Behosh Hui
(story narration focussing on problem and solution of anemia in girls)
4. Meri Saheli
(physical, emotional, psycho-social, sexual and reproductive health awareness for girls)
5. Beti Beta Ek Samaan
(real story about gender discrimination and the change in a tribal family towards gender equality)
6. Phir Subah Hogi
(motivational story about the determination of two tribal sisters Gangi and Baisagi, to defeat gender discrimination in their family)
7. Yuvaan ne Lapaibera ko Kiya Nashamukt
(a true story of the struggle journey of teenagers of Lapaibera forest village to make their village alcohol-free)
8. Nasha
(interesting narrative of the harms caused by intoxicating substances especially for the youngsters)

Rs 40/- each

9. Ganit Khel Khel Mein
(learning Maths with fun)
10. Kagaz ki Duniya
(easy steps of paper folding)
11. Dekhiye Samajhiye aur Kariye
(learning simple experiments of science, the interesting way)

12. Humlog Mahadevpur School Gaye

(experience sharing by village children of their visit to a model school in Mahadevpur village)

Rs 50/- each

13. Hamari Batey

(a pocket handbook for children with lots of IEC materials related to health, life skills, violence, rights and duties)

14. Grameen Bachhe Janey Apne Adhikar

(20 rights of children narrated in a simple manner)

15. Gaon se Kahan Aa Gaya Hoon

(Woes of a young boy who left his village and migrated to a city)

For our Women

Rs 35/- each

1. Nari Shakti se Nasha Mukti

(real life narration how women unitedly made their village alcohol-free)

2. Nanhe Beton ne Pita ka Nasha Chhuraya

(True story about the woes of her drunkard husband and how her two sons got rid of the addiction)

Rs 40/- each

3. Jan-kendrit Vakaalat

(the what, why and how of people-centred advocacy – step wise processes)

4. Aisa ho Hamara Gaon

(the vision of villagers about their village – a joint exercise done by the youth)

5. Hamare Gaon Ghar ki Kahani

(simple exemplary stories of poor families which transformed their lives)

Rs 50/- each

6. Hamare Kanooni Adhikar

(women related laws presented in simple words especially for rural tribal women)

7. Hamari Jaankar Saheli

(a handbook for women having all the Do's and Don'ts of health, family life, atrocities and abuse, rights)

8. Anpadh Hone ka Dukh

(real life experience of a young, illiterate woman after her husband passes away)

Booklets by & for Neo-literates

(Rs 40/- each multi-coloured)

HINDI

1. Nirakshar Salu (about illiterate village damsel Salu)
2. Haste Khelte Ganit (learning Maths the easy way)
3. Bachat Karna Atma Nirbhar Banuna (self-dependence through saving money)
4. Mahilaon ki Pahunch (women reach banks, post office, government offices)
5. Samridh Bhavishya Banaye Kand Mool Lagaye (farming of roots and tubers ensures a prosperous future)

Bangla

6. Aami Haasbo Hasaabo (collection of local jokes)
7. Emon Ekta Gachch Besati Dey Baro Maas (a tree which yields for 12 months, states the advantages of moringa)
8. Mod Nai Shiksha Chai (we do not want intoxicants, we want education)
9. Teenta Sangir Sung Thanaa Baboor Golpo (a funny story of three friends and the police inspector)
10. Kobitar Chhande Jeewonta koto Anande (collection of poems which makes life joyful)

Santali (tribal language)

